Stratford Perth Humane Society Announces New Centre Manager

The Animal Welfare Agency of South Central Ontario makes a renewed commitment to the Stratford-Perth community.

Stratford-Perth, Ontario, Canada, December 11, 2017 – We are delighted to announce the appointment of Christine Jones as the new Stratford-Perth Humane Society Centre Manager effective December 11, 2017.

Christine Jones is a Stratford resident and comes to the SPHS with a strong background in both charitable and corporate organizations including Meals on Wheels, the Lung Association of Huron-Perth, St. John Ambulance and the YMCA.

Her experience in senior team and management positions as well as her innovative and energetic leadership style will assist us in building a stronger community presence. “We’re thrilled to have her leading our Team, adding her expertise to our programs and services which provide ongoing care to the animals in the Stratford-Perth area,” says Kathrin Delutis, Executive Director.

She has a passionate dedication for her community and a commitment to making it a better place through her work at the SPHS.

Please join us in welcoming her to the SPHS and in partnering with her to move the SPHS forward in the community.
